COLLECT

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and give us the fruits of the earth in their season: grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

O T READING

Deuteronomy 26: 1—11

Moses spoke to the people, saying: When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.' When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.' You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

Gradual Hymn287 Praise and thanksgiving*GOSPEL

John 6: 25 — 35

When they found Jesus on the other side of the sea, the crowd said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' Then they said to Jesus, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.' Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'

Saturday Morning Bible Study

On Saturday 12th October we will begin Bishop Steven's 4 week Diocesan course on Principles of Deep Water Fishing. The course will start at 9.30am with breakfast and conclude with a Simple Mass at 10.30am.

OTHER NEWSSenior Saints Wednesday 9th October, 2.30pm in the Parish Centre

We have invited a Speaker from the National Trust to visit us this month, to talk about life at Cliveden during the period of the Second World War. It promises to be full of interest, and we should be delighted if you would join us to enjoy the presentation, before sharing refreshments.

Margaret Hill/Wendy ChannonFLOOR RESTORATION PROJECT UPDATE

Also known as The Galilee Project (see John 21). Don't forget to return your pledge forms by the end of October, or pick one up from the back of the church if you need one. There are also Christmas cards there of the lovely scene by Reg Denison of the quadrangle in the snow for you to order, and tile shop sheets so that you can invite your friends and family to join in. We will do it with God's help.

Ken SmithOperation Christmas Child

Young Saints will be launching this year's appeal in a few weeks but it would be helpful to get ahead with a supply of shoeboxes if anyone has any to spare.

Jenny WilksChurch Diaries

With only 3 months of this year left it's a good time to buy a 2020 diary. The All Saints ones are available now at the back of the church and a real bargain at only 50p. Money in the wall safe please.

Housekeeping Notice

Now that the weather is getting colder could you please remember to keep the doors closed after entering and exiting the church.
